Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The twice-a-week edition of th New York World has been converted into the Thrice-s Week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece or eighteen pages every week. This gives 156 papers a year, and every paper has o pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or mi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact, it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

it maintaining its deserved reputation both as a Pashion Journal and a weekly periodical for him erading.

Every week the BAZAR presents beautiful tollettes for various occasions, BANDOZ. BAUDE, and CHAPPUS illustrate and engrave the newest designs from the fluest models in Paris and Berlin. New York Fashious epitomies current styles in New York. A fortnightly pattern-sheet supplement with diagrams and directions enables women to cut and make their own gowns, and is of great value to the professional modiste as well as to the amateur dr-ssmaker. Children's Clothing receives constant attention. Fashious for Men are described in full detail by a man-abouttown. Our Paris Letter, by KATRARIER DE FOREST, is a sprightly weekly recital of fashion, gossip, and social doings in Paris, given by a clever woman in an entertaining way.

Both the serials for 1896 are the work of American women. Mrs Gerald, by MARIA LOUISE POOL, is a striking story of Naw England life. MARY E. WILKINS, in Jerom-, a roor Man, discusses the always interesting problem of the relations between labor and capital. Short stories will be written by the best authors.
